

Charles E. West

Charles E. West, 55, of 209 Elliot St., World War I veteran and a Chevrolet plant employe for the past 29 years died at 9 p.m. Monday in Mercy Hospital. He had been a hospital patient for several weeks.

Mr. West, son of Warren and Mary Miller West, was born in Cazenovia, Wis., Nov. 12, 1900. He served overseas with the 32nd Division in World War I. On Oct. 29, 1924, he married Elsie Gordon in Winona, Minn.

Surviving are his wife; one son, Richard of Janesville; five daughters, Mrs. Virginia Hayes, Mrs. Stuart Austin, Beverly, Marilyn and Charlene West, of all of Janesville; two grandchildren; four brothers, Ralph of Janesville, Bert, of La Crosse, Watson, of De Soto, Wis., and Hamilton, of Beloit; three sisters, Mrs. Theron Standiford and Mrs. Harold Schendel, both of Janesville and Mrs. Alex Hutchinson, Ontario, Wis.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Overton Funeral Home, the Rev. Sidney Lewis, Cargill Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Milton Lawns Memorial Park. Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 this evening.

Obituary for Charles E. West (Aged 55)

Clipped By:

ezakovich_35
Sun, Jul 5, 2020